Grade School Awards $60,000 in Contracts

Federal Grant Amounting To $65,000 Given Antioch

President M. Cunningham announced last week that approval of a $65,000 federal grant for the construction of an enlarged sewage treatment plant in Antioch had been granted. The project amounts to around $650,000. A check in the amount of $325,000 from the M. B. Vick Co., bond brokers in Chicago, has already been received for the purchase of general obligation bonds to finance the project. This act complies with federal requirements, stated village attorney Edward C. Jacobs.

The bonds were purchased at 3.95 per cent interest and a similar amount of revenue bonds at 4.47 per cent interest by the Chicago company which shared the purchase with Benjamin and Lang, another bond house.

The revenue bonds, totalling $325,000 or more, will be issued at a later date.

Although Antioch was 26th in line on the list of villages and cities recommended for federal aid by the Illinois Department of Health and Sanitation, the amount was granted.

One-tenth of the total cost of the sewage project will be paid by the federal grant. The other amounts accruing from the sewer and water mains, the laterals and the new elevated water reserve tank is to be paid for by the general obligation bonds and revenue bonds.

The increase of Antioch's population causes prompt action on the board's part to meet the added demands for proper sewerage. The present sewage treatment plant was designed for a population of 1,800. Engineer Dave Miller had earlier estimated the cost of the plant to run to $185,000.

Within a few weeks, bids, which will determine the exact cost of the project, will be put up.

Jaycees Sponsor Musical Program

The Lake Region Jaycees will sponsor their first annual Winter Dance for the public on Saturday, Jan. 27, at 8 p.m. The dance will be held at Lyons & Ryan Ford Sales Showroom.

Music and entertainment will be provided by the Rhythm Kings Orchestra. Refreshments will be served at the event.

In tune with the occasion, Governor Otto Kerner has proclaimed this week as "Junior Chamber of Commerce Week" in the state of Illinois. Governor Kerner asked that all civic leaders and local organizations cooperate in the observance.

James H. York, state president of the Illinois Jaycees reported that more than 185 communities in the state are expected to make similar proclamations.

"The purpose of Jaycee Week is to focus attention on the contributions young men make to their community, state and nation," York said.

"Jaycee Week" also celebrates the founding of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in St. Louis in 1915.

Rescue Squad Attends Youth

The Antioch Rescue Squad picked up Jack J. Shea, who was suffering from severe coughing and fainting spells, on Jan. 20.

Jack, 12 years old, and a resident of Kenosha County, was first treated by Dr. Thain and then taken to Victory Memorial Hospital for further treatment.

Driver is Issued Temporary Permit

Terrance K. Horton, of Antioch, was recently issued a probationary driver's permit due to traffic offenses committed previously.

The announcement was made by Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter through his office of the Drivers License Division.

New Candidate Wetzel To Run From 12th Cong. Dist.

Jim Wetzel, 37 year old attorney from Deerfield in Lake County, has announced that he is running for the Republican nomination for Representative to the United States Congress from the newly created 12th Congressional District in the April, 1962 primary. The new 12th Congressional District includes Lake, McHenry and Boone Counties. A combat veteran of World War II and a graduate engineer, Wetzel is a partner in his Chicago patent law firm and a long time active Republican.

In announcing his candidacy, Wetzel said that he was a member of Deerfield Village Caucus, District 110 School Board Caucus and Citizens Advisory Board, Chairman of Safety Council, Drive Chairman of United Fund. In professional affairs Wetzel has become a leading contributor to the Professional Ethics Committee of the Chicago Bar Association, is past chairman of Younger Members Committee of Patent Law Association of Chicago, chairman of its Special Meetings function and a past member of the Anti-Trust Committee of the Illinois State Bar Association. As a combat flyer in the Pacific in World War II, he was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters. Wetzel received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Illinois and earned his law degree at the University of Notre Dame. Before entering into the private practice of law he was with the Bell Telephone Laboratories in New Jersey. He has lived in Deerfield with his wife and three children for the past five years.

Wetzel is a member of the American Bar Association, the Illinois State Bar Association, the Chicago Bar Association and the Patent Law Association of Chicago.

In making this decision to run, Wetzel has brought to the political scene a unique combination of talents including attorney, scientist, civic leader and politician. "As a Congressman my legal and political background will be of great significance, but equally important will be the contributions that my own technical background will permit me to make to the evaluation and direction of our vast Federal programs on space and technology."

Of major concern to Wetzel is what he calls "change without progress." To be leaders in the world of today we vitally need progress. But headlong changes in the rush to adopt "new ideas" leads us more often backwards than forwards, more often to regress than to progress. This the nation can't afford. To avoid regress and to ensure progress all of our acts must be done with purpose, with purpose founded on wisdom based upon human experience.

The underlying theme to Wetzel's work in Washington, if elected, would be persons, purpose and progress. Conservatives are today the only group that concern themselves with these inseparable three. For here to be good national legislation, "purpose" must show itself in what we do in education, civil rights, taxation, agriculture and foreign affairs. He would oppose strongly any effort to continue the present surge toward federal controls.

Wetzel will begin his campaign with a strong staff of personal assistants and a plan that goes into action immediately. In the next four months he expects to appear in every city and town in the new district.

As completion of the new Antioch Post Office nears an end, workmen busy themselves with installing pavement and roofing. The new building is located on the corner of Orchard and Broadway streets. (Antioch News Photo)

Antioch High School Board Debates Tax Disbursement

The Antioch High School Board, which met Wednesday night at their regular monthly meeting, discussed the 1961 tax disbursement made to the Antioch High School district by the County Treasurer in the amount of $33,008.59. The disbursement amounted to 93.8 per cent of the extension made by the extension officer in the County Clerk's office. This was considered a slight improvement in collections over the 1960 extension for the high school district.

The board stated that their investment of $85,000 in U. S. Treasury Bills would derive an interest to be used for the current operations of the school.

Next the existing insurance coverage supplied by the Bernard H. Osmond Insurance Company was broadened to cover the new building construction on the east annex and on the west two story addition. The board will soon determine whether the new coverage premiums will be paid on a monthly reporting basis or on a completed value form basis.

The board accepted the library furniture bid from Remington Rand totalling $6,513. Other bids submitted were Sjoström, $6,942 and Interior Design, Inc., $8,791.85. The furniture is purchased for the new library facility in the new west addition.

The board approved the proposal submitted by the English Department that an additional Junior English Class will be taught the second semester by Kenneth Smouse, Ruth Nickelson and Bernard Fosmark.

Each teacher will receive $100.00 for assuming this extra responsibility beyond their normal teaching load.

3 Cars Crash, Two Injured

A three car accident resulted last Sunday due to the poor conditions of the roads.

Walter Derezninski, 35 and of Chicago, was proceeding along Rte. 173, just west of Route 59 when he approached slowly moving cars. He attempted to stop and skidded out onto the eastbound lane, striking the car of Earl Quirk, 31, of Burlington, who was going east.

William Grube, 25, of Winnetka, who was following Derezninski, also skidded behind him and struck him from the rear.

Derezninski's two passengers, Manda and Robert Walker of Chicago were injured, suffering from bleeding wounds. They were taken to the Antioch Clinic by the Rescue Squad.

Auto Smashes Into Railing

Darlyn Blumer, 33, of Spring Grove, damaged her car in an accident here last Sunday, Jan. 21.

Going west on Grass Lake Road and while proceeding across the Grass Lake bridge, Miss Blumer skidded across to the east lane of the bridge, struck the bridge's railing, bounced away and struck the railings on the west side also before coming to a halt.

Teachers' Salaries Remain To be Discussed by Board

The Antioch Grade School Board, meeting at 7 p.m., Tuesday, Jan. 23, opened bids for the completion of the seven classrooms at the Oakland Elementary School.

Those bidding as General Contractors were Ames Brothers, Inc. of Waukegan with $36,218, Custer Construction Co. of Des Plaines with $38,942, Ivar Frederickson & Son of Wonder Lake with $48,000, Joseph Frett & Son of McHenry with $44,403, M. W. Heath of Antioch with $47,470, Kenneth J. Nelson & Sons of Cary with $37,467 and Roy Nordstrom of Fox Lake with $37,000. The low-bidding Ames Bros. was awarded the contract.

School To Begin Survey

Emmons Grade School, District No. 33 of Lake County, will soon begin a resident survey of all homes and businesses within the prescribed boundaries of the District, according to the board of directors.

The purpose of the survey is two-fold: (1) to determine the number of actual residents within the true boundaries of District No. 33 and thereby determine the eligibility of Emmons Grade School for seven-man school board government, and (2) to notify, according to the Lake County Tax assessor's office, all those residents whose location is within District No. 33 boundaries.

In conjunction with the most recent boundary data available at the Lake County Map Department, those persons who reside within one school district but send their youngsters to another school district are subject to pay school tuition fees to the district attended.

The survey is expected to be completed by the end of February.

Five Local Youths Enter Men & Women's Army Corps

Three girls from Antioch enlisted in the U. S. Army Women's Army Corps (WAC), on December 29. The girls all attended Antioch High School. Two, Mary Jane Jensen, of 509 Naber Ave., and Joan Nicholl, 1106 Bishop Street, were graduated last June. The third girl, Margaret Ann Tholke, who resides at Channel Lake, qualified for her enlistment by successfully completing the general educational development (GED) Test, high school level.

The three girls were put on administrative leave over the New Year weekend and departed on Jan. 2nd for Fort McClellan, Ala., where they will receive their basic training prior to being sent elsewhere for their advanced training in selected courses.

Two young men from the Antioch area also enlisted on the same day, and departed for basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., on the 2nd of January. They are Richard T. Kapell, Route 3, Box 486, Antioch, and Albert Van Berkum, Route 1, Box 33, Spring Grove, Ill.

All five of these Antioch young people were enlisted through the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, 325 Washington St., Waukegan, by M/ Sgt. James E. Bridges.

Lake Villa Youth Hits School Bus

The sheriff's office reported that Paula J. Magnuson, 16, of Lindenhurst, struck the rear end of a school bus January 19.

The Lake Villa Grade School Bus, taking children home after school, was proceeding west on Townline Road just west of highway 21 when the driver, Clarence A. Perkins, 67, of Lake Villa, stopped to let a child out.

At this time, Miss Magnuson failed to stop and rammed into the rear end of the bus. However, no injuries were sustained by any passengers.

Miss Magnuson was issued a traffic violation ticket for following a vehicle too close and will appear before Judge Stanton in Waukegan.

Three of Antioch High School's recent graduates pose before being sworn into the Women's Army Corps. in Waukegan.

Electrical contractors bidding were Benson Electric Co. of Waukegan with $6,620, Carey Electric & Plumbing of Antioch with $6,390, Genesee Electric of Waukegan with $6,390, Hamlin Electric Co. of Lake Villa with $6,544, Highland Park Electric with $6,392 and Mau Electric of Lincolnwood with $7,178. Carey Electric was given the contract.

Among the plumbing contractors bidding on the job were F. Abbott, Inc. of Libertyville with $6,661, Carey Electric & Plumbing of Antioch with $6,390, G. Diemer Plumbing of Antioch with $6,905.65, Fred K. Jorgensen, Inc. of Round Lake with $9,972, H. R. Stewart, Inc. with $7,782, Walsh Plumbing & Heating with $7,500 and Wm. Zeigler & Sons, Inc. with $7,788. Carey, again holding the low bid, was awarded the contract.

William Zeigler & Sons, Inc. of Round Lake was given the contract for heating and ventilating as low bidder, with a bid of $11,000. Other firms bidding for the job were A & F Heating, Inc. of Waukegan with $11,216, F. Abbott, Inc. of Libertyville with $11,829, James Hardy Heating of Park Ridge with $12,932, Hans Jensen & Sons, Inc. with $11,894, Standard Engineer of Waukegan with $13,000 and H. R. Stewart, Inc. with $12,864.

The job was estimated in contract form to approximate $60,000. The board stated that when bids were received in 1959 for the same project the cost involved was between $55,000 and $60,000.

After the bids were opened, the board retired to their offices for a "disciplinary" case.

Resuming an open meeting at 9:05, the board read and approved the minutes of the previous meeting.

Following this the board discussed the requirements of the elementary supervisory permit issued to teachers.

A letter was then read from Carl Brooks, a sixth grade teacher at the Oakland School, informing the board of his resignation effective at the end of the 1962 school year.

The board voted to accept Brooks' resignation by a 4 to 3 vote.

Along with other miscellaneous matters, the board authorized the purchase of four tires for the school bus at a cost of $242.

A brief half-hour discussion of teachers' salaries, replacements and improvements followed the formal meeting.

Mr. Whitacre, superintendent of the grade school, stated that there would be openings for teachers in kindergarten, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 6th and 7th grades at the beginning of next year. The assignment of an overall Athletic Director for both schools was also discussed with no conclusion drawn.

A special meeting dealing only with education was suggested, but no action was taken.

The meeting adjourned at 11:21.

Hilltop Crash Damages Car

An auto accident occurred on Circle Drive January 19 when Duane Raiche, 46, of Watertown, Wis., and Evelyn Caldwell, 32, of Channel Lake hit each other.

Raiche was proceeding north on Circle Drive and Caldwell south when they met at the top of the hill, which allows for the passage of only one car, where they struck each other.

The station wagon driven by Raiche was damaged in the left rear area of the car but no injuries were sustained by either party.

Antioch Woman Suffers From Heart Condition

Mary Chase, 61, of Antioch, suffered from a heart condition last Thursday, Jan. 18, and was taken to County Hospital by the Antioch Rescue Squad. She has been under the care of Dr. Kopriva.

EDITORIAL

THE AMERICAN PRESS

A few weeks ago national publicity focused upon the folding of two major daily newspapers in Los Angeles, The Examiner and the Mirror. To many, this unheralded action came as a shock. Others, especially those working the publishing industry, said they not only expected this to happen but foresaw future occurrences throughout the country.

Of course, the public is unwittingly the cause of the death of those two newspapers which together spanned over 100 years of publication.

It is only reasonable to observe the impact that television, radio and other communicative devices has made upon the American newspaper. These medias have been gnawing away at the circulation of dailies and even weeklies for years.

What is even more important is that the newspapers have helped to ruin their own cause. Therein lies the crux of the problem.

The public, always advertently aware of what can be considered "genuine immediacy" has casually turned on a single dial to hear and see the news of the world as it happens instead of going down to the corner drugstore to purchase a newspaper.

This nationwide habit is well on its way to ruining a good portion of a single generation's future. It is almost unbelievable but thousands of tomorrow's reporters, editors, printers, compositors, artists, draftsmen, linotypists and hordes of other specialized personnel will most probably be obsolete for their jobs if something is not done to retain the public's interest in reading newspapers.

But what can be done?

Simple. We believe that no one can change a nation's habits, particularly in competing with an overwhelming vehicle of entertainment such as television. As we see it, newspapers today busy themselves all too readily with attempting to provide an equal amount of entertainment which at no time was ever the purpose of the newspaper.

Diversified and sporadic as it is, the American public is still news conscious but not stupid enough en toto to have a repititious charge of money and time exacted from them by newspapers when they can derive the same scope of the news without stirring from their living room chairs by turning on television sets.

However, we feel the public is entitled to more than a cursory treatment of events and news happenings which schedule-consuming television is unable to provide.

We feel that a personalized, analytical and depthful approach to reporting is required. The extremely successful Christian Science Monitor with its multi-phasic critics, reporters and by-lined correspondents bear witness to this method.

In the long run, it is simply giving the public the meat between the bread-like slices of TV and radio.

Of course, a continued interest and support of the newspaper media by the public is necessary for their sustained operation. It is only when newspapers forget their reading audience, take their readership for granted, and trudge down the unsuccessful path of provincial and archaic treatment of the news that they fail.

To change, we feel, formats, style, treatments; to report and to analyze the day's events beyond the rim of transitory values is necessary not only for the continued success of newspapers, but essential in staying within the hub of America's changing ways of life.

When our media resigns itself to this function, the public, we feel, will be better served, more informed and just as active in its support of the newspaper as in the beginning when the printed word was picture enough for the mind's eye.

The American Experience

By Ray Paschner

Graduated from Yale at the age of 26, the young man was engaged to serve as tutor for a family in Georgia. On his way to his post, the young man became acquainted with a Mrs. Nathaniel Greene (widow of the Revolutionary general) in Savannah. While at Mrs. Greene's estate word came that the prospective tutoring job had been filled by another man, consequently he remained at Mrs. Greene's estate for a time.

One afternoon in that year, 1792, Mrs. Greene happened to be entertaining a number of friends. Talk turned to the state of agriculture in the South. The main problem at the time was cotton. There was no way of separating the staple cotton from its seed. It required ten hours of work by a slave to separate one pound of lint from three pounds of seed. Mrs. Greene told her friends to take their problem to her house guest, Eli Whitney. "He," she said, can make anything.

Mrs. Greene's faith in the mechanical ability of Mr. Whitney certainly seems to have been justified. Within two weeks he had put together a working model of the cotton gin. "By the process he devised, the cotton was dragged through a wire screen by means of toothed cylinders revolving towards each other. A revolving brush cleaned the cylinders and the seed fell into another compartment." So in two weeks Whitney had introduced the machine which was to revolutionize the South.

This story is told by Arnold Whitridge in a fine article entitled, "Eli Whitney, Nemesis of the South," in the American Heritage Reader. It demonstrates again how chance seems to play such an important role in history.

Consider, for example, what might have happened if Eli Whitney had obtained the teaching job in Georgia immediately. He would have gone directly there and most likely would never have been confronted with the idea of devising a cotton gin. True enough, he might have invented it later; and if not he, then most likely someone else would have eventually designed a machine for the purpose.

The consequences of the invention are not difficult to illustrate. One pound of cotton had previously taken 10 hours of work before it was ready. After a time through the use of Whitney's cotton gin and adding a number of refinements, we have a cotton gin run by water power which could produce anywhere from 3000 to 10,000 man hours of work to produce a similar amount before the cotton gin. In other words the cotton gin could do in one day what it would take a slave anywhere from 125 days to 416 days.

That's a lot of work.

Three federal judges have clarified and bolstered the right of railroads to offer competitive rates as provided in an amendment made to the Interstate Commerce Act in 1958. They ruled in favor of 24 railroads which sought to upset an Interstate Commerce Commission report that fixed some rates at a level 6 per cent higher than comparable water carrier rates. The opinion said that the Commission's report amounted to an "erroneous interpretation" of the law in question.

"Be careful of your thoughts," says the Sentinel of Greenleaf, Kansas, "they may turn into words."

Awarding of contracts this month for the construction of the Mental Retarded Institute at Centralia marked a milestone in Illinois' revitalized program for care and treatment of the mentally ill. When completed this new facility will be one of the finest mental health centers in the nation.

It is made possible, as are those to be constructed at six other cities in the state, by the people of Illinois who approved the $150 million bond issue at the election in November 1961. A hospital for the mentally retarded and mentally disturbed also will be constructed at Harrisburg, with the costs to be paid out of the Mental Health Fund.

The institution will be used for treatment of both in- and out-patients and is designed specifically to accommodate patients from ages six to 21.

The institution and its many innovations will be the prototype for the development of a mental health program that will permit the Illinois Department of Mental Health to respond with flexibility to changing conditions. It is planned specifically to meet the demands of a positive program of treatment, not a stereotyped one that has custodial care as its only function.

To be constructed under the contracts awarded recently will be the administration and diagnostic in- and out-patient building, four H-type ward buildings, a community center, the dietary center, laundry, mechanical shops and stores building, and the power plant building.

The over-all plan permits future expansion of three additional H-type ward buildings. The administration and diagnostic center building will face the entrance to the 120-acre plot, with the ward buildings located in a fan-type arrangement to the side and rear. All units will have ramps for the convenience of wheelchair and stretcher patients.

The functional design of the treatment center permits use of the same diagnostic and laboratory equipment for both in- and out-patients. It is arranged to afford the utmost convenience to the out-patients with ample parking facilities near the entrance.

Construction work on this new facility will get under way within the next two months and the project is scheduled for completion within two years.

As this institution represents a new concept in custodial and out-patient care, and is one of the initial steps in Illinois' development of a humane program for care of our mentally ill, I will report some of its interesting aspects next week.

Courthouse Notebook -

BY LOU DURKIN

Planning and zoning and their place in a democratic society were the subject of discussion at an interesting seminar conducted for the benefit of municipal, business, and industrial leaders last week at the Waukegan Inn.

The parley was arranged by Robert Morris, Lake County planning officer, to give these leaders detailed information on the philosophy behind zoning and planning and to explain what the Lake County Regional Planning Commission is trying to accomplish with the land maps, surveys, and recommendations it has been developing the past few years.

It was an interesting, informative evening highlighted with the display of some of the maps prepared by the department.

But we couldn't help thinking of the cries of anguish which would arise if some of the elected officials such as the Coroner or Sheriff, or even some of your legislators were to set up a similar program to explain the functions and operations of their offices.

That's an advantage the professionals and experts in government have over the lowly elected officials; they can resort to public relations efforts to tell their story.

The race for endorsement by local political clubs is under way and the disappointed candidates are busy rationalizing that the endorsements didn't mean a thing.

State Rep. Robert Coulson took an early lead with a "favorite son" blessing from the Waukegan Township committeemen and most of the other Congressional candidates are expected to get a send-off in their local areas.

This makes quite a problem for Lake Bluff committeemen who are going to have to choose between veteran campaigner Robert McClory and a pair of newcomers to the political scene.

The danger of making endorsements before the final lineup is official was brought out rather sharply Monday night when the Grant Township organization met to endorse candidates.

The Grant precinct committeemen, apparently working on the advice of Supervisor Frank Valente, recommended the endorsement of Wesley Koehler, county purchasing agent, who was supposed to be a 12th hour entry in the race for probate clerk.

Apparently something went awry, because Koehler had not filed at 5 p.m. when County Clerk Gar Leaf closed the doors leaving the committeemen spattered more than somewhat with egg about the face.

Word filtered through to the club members and they took the committeemen off the hook by voting for Hugo Schneider.

One of the noticeable changes in the political picture is the sudden respectability of the word "conservative."

In recent years, Republican candidates would talk the conservative viewpoint even for county offices, but they would avoid outright use of the label.

Hans Hanson, of Round Lake, was the first we heard cloak himself in the word in his bid for the GOP nomination for state representative and now most of the candidates making their first appearance are clutching the label and one, George Francis, candidate for Congress, is proudly proclaiming himself an ultra-conservative.

It looks like a long campaign season of "I'm more conservative than you are, so there, too."

Band wagon riders who have not reserved a seat on the Sheriff calliope as yet will be watching with interest the turnout for the Mickey Babcox Testimonial Dinner at the

Antioch News
To the Editor:

In regard to a teacher's letter last week, I should like to point out most sincerely there are always two sides to every story.

Having had a child in Mrs. Whitacre's room last year, I can vouch most earnestly that the children's work was always corrected and they were taught proper phonetics.

True, our American language is difficult and spells peculiarly, like the word phonetics itself. So I agree, it does take much education to teach our children the proper way to spell.

However, we all know Mrs. Whitacre was capable of correcting those articles in the Supersonic News. But, this was not a spelling lesson, but a self-expression lesson intended to encourage these little children to create an article of interest for their own intuitiveness. Thus, giving these children a sense of accomplishment whether great or small.

Now if Mrs. Whitacre had correct-

Her name she didn't even jumble.

But dear old "Tad" sure gave me a time,
Until he sent his second rhyme.
By "George" I should have guessed
That "Handsome Hawkins" would have me perplexed.

ed these particular articles, the children would lose the promise of a task done completely by themselves. I'm sure the celebrated teacher, "Mr. Sam Levenson" would agree—sometimes we should have our children taught their lessons with understanding and individual forethought and not by books alone.

Mrs. Whitacre exemplifies this theory. So to Imogene Cashmore, please read these articles again, this time with your heart and not your intellect. You will find the openness of a child's mind to the love of a dog, the pride one has in her father's running for public office, the simple beauty of flowers derived from attending a funeral, and the love of birds for which a bread tree was made.

I enjoyed these stories and appreciated the opportunity to peek into these private little worlds of love and understanding.

Try and remember the joy of accomplishing something you did all by yourself when you were very young. Maybe it was a poem your teacher asked you to create, or a thank-you note; but you did it yourself and you were proud, weren't you?

So please try to understand these articles were not meant to be humorous or correct, but as an object lesson in life to always be remembered.

You will hear from me soon and wish you success for the coming year 1962. My sight is very poor, but manage to read enough to keep up with the old surroundings.

Book Review

By Marian Harden

In "Stories from the Bible", Walter De La Mare retells for children the first nine books of the Old Testament. The stories of the Creation, of Joseph, Moses, Samson, and David are told in a poetic English that enhances the beauty of the tales, but is much easier for children to understand than the King James Version. "Stories from the Bible" was given to the Antioch

Township Library in memory of Laura Jean Larson.

"The New English Bible" is the consummation of 13 years of devoted scholarship. The new version of the New Testament was inspired by the urgent need felt among the churches for an authoritative Bible written in a clear and contemporary vocabulary. "The New English Bible" was given in memory of Mrs. Theresa Lewis.

Two books that are a treasure house of material for all who are interested in the original inhabitants of our continent were given to the library in memory of John T. Gallagher, brother of Mrs. Elmer Davis.

"The American Heritage Book of Indians" is a beautiful example of the bookmaker's art. It is a large book with many colored illustrations. William Brandon describes the prehistoric Indian, the conquest by the white men, and the Indians of today.

The indomitable Danish explorer, Peter Freuchen, knew more about the Eskimos than any other man of our generation. "Peter Freuchen's Book of the Eskimos" describes the Eskimo origins, their migrations, and their present settlements throughout Greenland, Northern Canada and Alaska. Many of the tales he tells are from his own experience.

CELINA, TEX., RECORD: "The federal government wants to give Tyler, Texas, money on the grounds that the city is a 'depressed area.' Just how silly can politicians get? Tyler is one of the best cities in Texas, and many Tyler people don't like the implication that their progressive, lovely city is seeking alms from the rest of the country."

License Application Falls Behind Last Year's Pace

Illinois motorists are falling farther behind last year's pace in applying for their license plates this season, with the deadline for displaying 1962 plates now less than six weeks away, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier said today.

Through last week, registrations totaled about 1,115,000, as compared with 1,250,000 at the same time a year ago, which means that an estimated 2,500,000 motorists have yet to apply for their licenses, Mr. Carpentier said.

He emphasized again that February 15 is the deadline for having the 1962 plates mounted on the vehicles, and advised persons applying by mail to have their applications in his office by February 1 to be assured of having their plates in time for the deadline.

Secretary Carpentier assured persons who requested reassignment of letter-digit combinations in which the first letter is in the middle of the alphabet that they will have their plates in time for the deadline.

Space limitations in the Centennial building here prevent having a large inventory of plates on hand at any particular time, and as a result plates must be accepted from the manufacturer in numerical and alphabetical sequence, and are mailed in the same order, he explained.

As the heavy flow of applications eases, it is possible to go beyond current mailings and secure the reassigned numbers and mail them, Mr. Carpentier said.

The guidance, evaluation and referral services of the Heart Council of Lake County has helped many cardiacs return to work and lead normal, productive and satisfying lives. If you need help with a problem arising out of a heart condition, call the Heart Council of Lake County, Cherry 4-1210.

A Labor Department statistical survey shows a continuing decline in union membership in the United States since 1955, the peak year of union enrollment; 17,049,000 workers were union members in 1955, a decline of over 440,000 since 1955. Only a fourth of the nation's total labor force, and about a third of the employees in non-farm establishments, belong to unions, and the percentage of union members in each of these categories has been declining. In 1955, 24.8 per cent of the total (farm and non-farm) labor force was unionized; in 1960, it dropped down to 23.3 per cent.

In 1960, moreover, ten unions accounted for almost half the total union membership. — From National Review.

Inside Antioch High

By Mike Brooks

Congratulations to the fine job that the Sequoia did all the way around last weekend against Warren. The varsity wrestling team won their first meet and the sophomore grapplers won also. The sophomore basketball team trounced Warren and the "Mighty Little Giants," although they were the underdogs, reared up on their heels and upset the Blue Devils.

This weekend, the Sequoia travel down to Grayslake for a revenge game. We feel that the Sequoia are going to give the Ewes a run for their money—all the way. Following Friday's game, another tough contest comes with Round Lake Saturday night at home. This weekend is going to be a critical time in the Northwest Suburban Conference race. Antioch needs their town behind them to cheer them on. Try to come see the Sequoia play either Friday or Saturday night or better yet, both games.

My sympathy is extended to the youth group from St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Lindenhurst, who suffered a bitter defeat at the hands of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the Methodist Church of Antioch, in a basketball game last Sunday evening. The final score was 192-92. Better luck next time, fellows!

Semester exams are over at last. The students received their test grades today. Well, there is always next semester.

New Church Holds Lutheran Worship

A new Lutheran Church, it was recently reported, is being established at Grass Lake—the Chain O' Lakes Lutheran Mission.

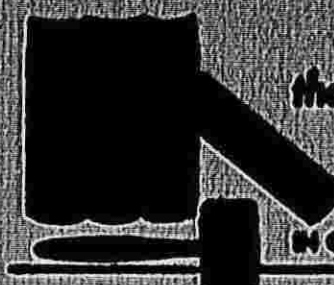

The first services of the new organization were held last Sunday in the Grass Lake School Assembly Hall, with over 100 persons attending. Services were held at 9:30 followed by an 11:00 o'clock Sunday school. Both children and adults were in the school's attendance.

The Reverend Kenneth Haskell, pastor of the new church, stated that he would continue to hold services until an aggregate of 75 "confirmed Lutheran individuals" were collected before the building of a church would be contemplated.

The Rev. Haskell, who is a Fox Lake Hills resident, went on to say that a future site for the church would most probably be situated on Rte. 59 between Grand Avenue and Grass Lake Road.

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF

IN COOPERATION WITH THE NEWSPAPER

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT "BALLEMENTS"?

Can I collect from the restaurant owner if my hat is stolen from the hat rack? If my younger brother uses my car on a date and injures someone while driving, am I liable?

These and similar questions are often asked of lawyers by worried clients and curious friends. The answers are found in a special branch of the law known as the "law of bailments."

In everyday language, a bailment is a loan. Generally, a bailment occurs when possession of personal property is given to another (the "bailee"), but the ownership remains in the lender (the "bailor").

Bailments can be for a fixed period of time or for indefinite term, and they can be for pay or free. Bailments relate always to "personality," that is, tangible property, not attached to land.

Possession Must Pass
Bailments give rise to special rights and duties. A few commonplace examples may help to illustrate some of them. First, a bailment does not occur unless possession of the property is delivered to another.

So, when you hang your hat on the hat rack in the coffee shop, you have not delivered possession to the owner, and therefore you cannot hold him responsible as bailee if it is gone when you look for it.

However, if you leave your hat with a hat-check girl, then she, and her employer, become the bailees of your chapeau.

Presumption of Negligence
The bailee is under a duty to return the property in as good condition as when he received it. If he fails to do so, then the law presumes that he was negligent in injuring or losing the property, and the burden shifts to him to prove he is not at fault.

For example, if you leave your car with an attendant in a parking lot, and find on your return that there is a new dent in the fender, the damage is presumed to have happened through the carelessness of the attendant. This means that if the case went to court, the attendant or his employer would have to prove that he was not careless with the car while he had possession of it.

This presumption operates for two reasons: First, it is logical to assume that injury or loss to a bailed article is caused by the bailee's neglect, because he had possession of it, and second, the bailee is in a better position than the bailor to prove what happened to the property, again for the reason that he had possession.

Bailor Not Responsible
The bailor is not responsible for his bailee's negligent use of the property loaned. Thus, if you loan your car to your younger adult brother, and while driving it on his own business he injures someone through his own fault, you are not responsible to the injured party.

But remember, if the accident occurs by reason of a hidden defect in the auto, that you know about, or that you should have known of, you may be liable to the injured person. Your failure to warn your bailee of the defect may well be a contributing cause of the accident.

These are only a few rules taken from the law of bailments. They indicate the importance to us all of taking care of property entrusted to us, and of choosing our "bailees" with care.

This column is written to inform and not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without consulting his attorney. Even a slight difference in the facts may change the result under the law.

HINSDALE, MONT., TRIBUNE:
"We've had too much socialism already. Millions of Americans right now would like to see the trend reversed instead of intensified and we are among that number. If this sounds like we are against sending our money, great gobs of it to Washington, and then getting a little bit of it back as federal 'aid' in order to nationalize our schools and every phase of American life, you're absolutely right."

Stamp Collector Noted In Locale

By Mrs. Fred Bartlett

Lake Villa, along with several other Lake County communities, is now represented in the National Postage Stamp Collection of the Smithsonian Institution. A letter, last week, from Frank A. Taylor, director of the Museum of History and Technology, acknowledged the receipt of eleven precancelled stamps contributed from the collection of Delbert Sherwood, Lake Villa stamp collector.

Precancelled stamps are cancelled by local post offices before they are sold to those who have a permit to buy and use them. The name of the town or city where they are issued is on each stamp. Adding these stamps to the Institution's collection began in late 1939 and has been supported by the voluntary contributions of interested collectors.

Sherwood has been collecting stamps for over 25 years and has a large collection of United States stamps. He is also a member of the Precancel Stamp Society, a nationwide organization of collectors of precancelled stamps.

Other towns represented by this contribution are Antioch, Grayslake, Zion, Waukegan, North Chicago, Libertyville, and Barrington.

Icy Blasts Make Tom'row's Sagas

By Mrs. Pearl Kapell

As the mercury sinks to new lows, and the snow piles to new highs, there are a couple of thoughts in which we can take comfort. We're breaking records, and the statisticians assure us that we only get a winter like this about once in sixty years. As practically anyone old enough to read this probably won't be here in sixty years, all we have to do is last through this one and we've got it made.

It's an ill wind that blows no good. Cling to that thought as the icy wind blows wet snow in your face while you pursue whatever errands can not be avoided. That it's an ill wind, I heartily agree. Downright sick. It takes a little more thought to dig out the good. Look ahead. Think of the tales you can tell your grandchildren of the winter of '62. With each year that passes, the snow will get higher and the mercury lower. By 1980 (if we can ignore the records) our stories should even frighten us.

Think of the delight of the winter sportsman. No need to manufacture snow for the skier this year. He can bound over veritable mountains of snow. If he can get through the roads to reach a suitable spot for his sport. And when he gets home, he can beat his chest and proclaim to one and all what a hardy soul he is.

Fuel oil dealers, garages and manufacturers of those tricky little electrical dip sticks for cold cars can also benefit greatly from winters like this. As you painfully dig out money for extra oil, getting the car started, cough medicine, new batteries and penicillin shots, remember you're making somebody happy. It's a lovely thought, isn't it?

Florida vacationers, too, have an opportunity such as comes once in a lifetime. For years many of these poor souls have spent their hard-earned money only to have friends say with poisonous sweetness, "You should have stayed home. We've had wonderful weather." No matter what kind of weather Florida's having, it would seem like a heat wave to us. So be noble. Take joy in their delight. It's probably costing you nearly as much to stay home as they're spending in Florida, so if you just can't stand being noble, you can probably take the wind out of their sails with some suitably snide remark about Florida trips no longer being a status symbol.

I thought I had found some comfort when doctors started warning that people over forty shouldn't shovel snow or walk through deep snow. This is one time I'll gladly admit to being over forty. In fact, I'd admit to seventy or eighty if it would get me out of shoveling snow. Unfortunately, the snow sat right there and waited for me. We ran out of groceries, and it was shovel or starve. If I must go, I prefer to go with a full belly. So I shoveled. There are numerous little beneficial by-products of this unseasonably winter. News of the weather has pushed the atom bomb and fall-out shelters right off the front page and TV. I was getting deathly sick of arguments over whether or not I would shoot my neighbor if he tried to get into my shelter. If I had a shelter, it would be just another walk to shovel, and I'd probably freeze to death if I stayed in it. And right now, an atom bomb doesn't sound so bad. Think of the snow it would get rid of, and all that lovely heat.

One delightful by-product of this winter is that people practically never greet you any more with "Cold enough for you?" In fact, they talk as little as possible because they're too out of breath to bother. So it's not all bad. And if thinking of all these advantages doesn't comfort you, remember, it's like hitting yourself in the head with a hammer—it feels so good when it stops.

Lindenhurst News

By Mrs. Bernice Norman

Women's Club

Mrs. Dee Flint, chairman of the Western Party, that the Lindenhurst Women's Club is sponsoring, and her committee will circulate, selling tickets. Mesdames Dorothy Thompson, Babe Hartwig, Lu Stanley, Erlene Pearce, Bert Harceg, Phyllis Kleban and Grace Slove comprise the committee.

February 24 is the date, and the Lindenhurst Civic Center the place. Everyone is asked to attend in Western attire. Shootin' Irons will be checked at the door. R. C. Hampton of Glenview will call the square dancing done to a concertina.

Baby Shower

Mrs. Claude Anderson was guest of honor at a baby shower last Tuesday, given by Mrs. Dorothy Smith of Pinecrest Lane. Decorations in pink made it known that a little Miss is hoped for. The Andersons have two little boys, Frankie and Gary.

Attending were Mesdames Ruth Ann Jansky, Dorothy Golden, Mary Ellen Kell, Dolly Melot, Ruby Elvion, Audrey Holyfield and Miss Shirley Heldner. Mrs. Holyfield is visiting at Mrs. Kell's home in Greenwood Park. She is from Bethel, Alaska. Her daughter, Linda, is staying with Mrs. Anderson.

Diapers, bottles, diaper bag, bunting, bibs, nursery tray and jar set, pajamas and sheets are waiting to be used. The baby is due any day.

Women's Club News

The Western Party will be Feb. 24; the annual card party will be late in April or early May. Gas Company Cooking School will probably be at the April meeting. Mother and Daughter night will be in June, rather than in November.

There was a great deal of talk about showing movies at the Civic Center on Saturday afternoons for the children. If enough adults will offer to help, it may work out. The Lindenhurst Men's Club will have to be consulted. They don't plan on making a profit, just enough to pay for the rental of the films that will be shown.

Members will be working at the Lake Villa School March 9 and 10 for the Countryside Hospital rummage sale. Also helping to set up on the 8th. They are also asking for loose S&H stamps. They may be left at Slove's Bakery.

Mary Tracy and Zenia Neumann audited the books recently.

Bonnie Windorff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Windorff, was released Dec. 27, after a stay in the hospital. She is still under doctor's care and will be for some time, but her recovery is regarded as a miracle. She returned to school last week.

Women's Society of Ev. Church

The Women's Society of the Evangelical United Brethren Church on Beck Road will meet today, Jan. 25, at the home of Mrs. Ruth Tuttle on Beck Road at 8 p.m.

The theme of the meeting will be the E. U. B. Missionary work in Latin America. After a brief business meeting into the mission work of the church, the ladies will join together for refreshments. Co-hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Judy Weber and Mrs. Myrie Hildinger. All ladies are cordially invited. For further information call Mrs. Gorski, El. 6-5334.

At their December meeting, the first service project of the group, the ladies all worked together to prepare a food basket for a needy family.

Birthdays

Carmie Meglio, Jane Lindberg, Pearl LaBarbera and Evelyn Lazansky got together at Betty Quinn's home, on Whiteoak Drive recently for coffee and biscuits to celebrate Evelyn's birthday.

Stevie Smith, 1905 East Pinecrest Lane celebrated his sixth birthday Jan. 15, by dining on steak. When asked what he wanted for his birthday the answer was "steak." Expensive taste for a six year old. He also ordered a "chocolate cake."

Sunday afternoon the Smith family enjoyed a fried rabbit dinner at the home of Edna and Joe Bette in Lake Villa. Joe raises his own rabbits so they can have them any time they wish.

Other birthdays the past week or so were Bud Flint and his daughter, Kelly, who was two years old, both on the 3rd of January. Mrs. Irene Sullivan will be celebrating the 16th. And Terri Paprzyca on the 23rd.

Hospital Patients

Mrs. Donald (Jeanette) Pifer of 2405 East Thornwood Drive was operated on Jan. 8. She was released Thursday from St. Joseph's Hospital in Chicago.

Don's mother, Mrs. Louise Martin, is staying with the children.

John Shore of 11 West Grand Avenue in Lake Villa, the son of the Denver Shores on Valley Drive, was operated on last week at St. Therese's Hospital. He had surgery performed on his knee. He is expected home this week. His wife Valerie and the baby have been staying at Grandmother Pearson's.

Mrs. Martha Maxwell is a patient at St. Therese Hospital, also. She went in for observation Friday.

Mrs. Guzak of Old Elm Road is recuperating at home, after having surgery on her throat recently at Great Lakes. She attended the installation ceremonies Thursday of the Women's Club, but didn't do much talking. She is the new secretary.

John Menning, 306 Beck Road, came home from St. Therese Hospital last Tuesday minus his tonsils. Mrs. Dale (Anne Marie) Juhlin, 1918 East Hazelwood Drive, entered Victory Memorial Hospital Jan. 8. Clean-up Squad.

Mr. Walker and his crew deserve a word of appreciation for clearing our roads as rapidly as possible last week during all that snow. The fellows worked all Saturday night (Jan. 14) trying to make 23 miles of our village passable. They even set up flares on Valley Drive and Laurel Drive where the roads were bad, to warn motorists. If you thought they didn't do a good job, you should have seen the roads in some of the neighboring towns and cities.

Missing

If the party who "borrowed" the tire and wheel from the truck stuck on Beck Road Christmas morning is through with it, Mrs. Dorothy Golden's father would appreciate having it back. It's too bad that when a person has to leave his car disabled somewhere, someone has to "borrow" it. That was a good Christmas Day start for someone.

Channel Lake News

By Mrs. Pearl Kapell

With plenty of partisan support on both sides, the Channel Lake school board was defeated by the Channel Lake basketball team on Friday night by a score of 38-34. Undaunted by their defeat, members of the board reported they enjoyed the game, and certainly the audience did.

If the school board couldn't outscore the boys, they certainly were outstanding in the taste and originality in their costuming. Lacking regular uniforms, the men, assisted by their wives, "scrunged up" whatever they could. "Tiger" Harland and "Crasher" Scott wore shorts with "U. S. Inspected Prime Beef" stamped on the seat. Perhaps the beef was past its prime—they couldn't make that extra point. "Whiz" Behling wore black trunks over red tights and high boots. In his hurry to join the fray, he neglected to lace his boots to the top, and some felt the flapping tops may have interfered with his usual high scoring.

In an attempt to assert women's rights, "Slippery" Sobey and "Bomber" Karr tried to get into the game. However, they appeared slightly confused, as "Slippery" wore a football helmet and the "Bomber" carried a baseball and bat, so they were ruled ineligible, probably because the referee was a man. They claim they were not confused, they just wanted to be ready for anything.

It is understood that the school board plans to start weekly practice sessions, with a view to taking the boys on again.

Mrs. Dorothy Olson, who has been vacationing in the west since Christmas, returned to her duties as cook at the Channel Lake school last Monday. Mrs. Mary Bierman has been taking over her duties for the last month.

Ken Miller has taken over the duties as custodian since Verne Heath's departure on a long vacation.

The P.T.A. of the Channel Lake School cancelled its regular meeting on January 18 because of bad weather. The meeting will be held at the regular time next month with the January program to be presented—civil defense in the schools. John Horan will be the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chase have left Channel Lake for a long winter vacation in Texas and California.

The Happy Eight were entertained by Mrs. Lois Liss on Jan. 11 with a luncheon at Smart's Country House. The afternoon was spent in playing cards.

In 1901 only one steel company could produce a million tons per year. By 1960, the figure rose to 20, according to "Steel Facts."

Lindenhurst News

By Mrs. Bernice Bernas

Teenage Club

The Lindenhurst-Venetian Village Teenage Club met Sunday evening at the Lindenhurst Civic Center. A group of 20 boys and girls gathered together to surprise Judy Miller for her birthday. The girls brought two home-made cakes that were quickly consumed.

The table tennis tournaments got under way, one for the boys and one for the girls. The first round of eliminations was almost completed. By the end of the next meeting they hope to have a couple of champions.

A nominating committee was elected to select a slate of officers for the year. The committee consists of Diane Loo, Diane John, Robert Plotzke and Louis Meglio. They hope to have quite an interesting program planned in the near future.

Meetings are held the first and third Sundays of every month, from 6:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. Shuttle service is provided for those needing it. Plan on attending the next meeting Feb. 4.

Bowlers

Loren Lee Lewis of 222 S. Valley Drive and her friend Jill Thompson of Antioch bowled in the Christmas Bowling Tournament at the Antioch Lanes. Last week they received a trophy for high series in the Senior Doubles. Loren Lee had a 520 and Jill 462. This is Loren Lee's third trophy she has won. Several times she has received honorable mention.

Christening

Donna Eileen, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Coles of 218 South Valley Drive, was baptized Sunday afternoon at Prince of Peace Church in Lake Villa. Godparents were Mrs. Marie Mangi and Dean Johnson.

Guests were the grandparents, aunts and uncles. The Coles also have two little boys, Ronnie and Stevie.

Teachers Needed

Anyone with a college degree who wishes to teach in the Catholic elementary schools next September, should contact the school board immediately. A six weeks' training program will begin on Feb. 19.

Breakfast

Clarence Diver Supports McClory

Clarence Diver of Waukegan, former president of the Illinois State Bar Association, and Dean of the Lake County Bar, in an interview today, stated that he is supporting State Senator McClory for the Republican nomination to Congress in the new 12th Congressional District (Lake, McHenry and Boone Counties).

In urging his fellow lawyers and other citizens to back McClory for Congress, Mr. Diver declared: "Senator McClory has shown the capacity and desire for service, which distinguishes him as a legislator. As the author of Judicial Redistricting of Lake and McHenry Counties in the 1957 session, as well as securing passage of a bill adding a Judge to the Bench of this circuit in his first term as a legislator in 1951, Senator McClory showed his awareness of the growing trial calendar. These two measures have meant that litigants' cases would receive an earlier and fuller hearing, and prevent the inequities which are identified with trial backlogs. Senator McClory's bills to reform the Justice of the Peace Courts have brought national recognition to Illinois and to Senator McClory as a lawyer and lawmaker. It was largely through Senator McClory's efforts that 17 additional Superior Court Judges were provided at the recent special session of the Illinois General Assembly."

Mr. Diver also called attention to Senator McClory's legal talents, including his specialization in the fields of municipal law and state taxation, as well as his active bar association work.

Mr. Diver added: "As a member of Congress, Senator McClory, I feel sure, will give the same capable, sound and thoughtful service to the area he has represented in Springfield during the past 12 years."

Vacation

Mrs. Ella Schrotland, 104 North Whiteoak Dr., left here Sunday for an extended visit with her brother, Walter Willig, in Mesa, Ariz. Three months there last winter, spoiled her. Nieces and nephews and great-nephews will help to make her visit a pleasant one again.

Christening

Mark Sigmunt, three week old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sigmunt Kempinski of 1914 East Longmeadow Drive was christened Sunday at Prince of Peace Church. Sponsors were Joan Kempinski and Stanley Wegrzyn of Chicago. Approximately 40 immediate relatives of the family attended the supper. The Kempiskis have a daughter Nancy.

Daisies Seniors

The Lindenhurst 4-H Daisies, Sr. met at Patricia Wallock's home last Thursday evening. Barbara Warchal gave a talk on "Democracy" and Patricia demonstrated the proper way to press wool and the kind of equipment needed. Due to the weather, Mrs. Andrew Westberg, leader, and Carolyn Westberg were the only other ones there.

The February 1 meeting will be at Barbara Warchal's home on Deerpath Drive.

VFW

Fourteen women belonging to the VFW Auxiliary went by bus last Thursday to Downey Hospital to sponsor a dance for the patients there. Between 350 and 400 patients attended.

Las Vegas Days are coming up at the VFW Post February 3. The members are asked to help.

Pleviak And Company Humble Blue Devils

Sequoits Take 39 Rebounds

By Howard Shepard

That's practically the whole story of Antioch's 68-59 upset victory over the second place Warren Blue Devils Friday night at Gurnee.

Getting off to a slow start the Sequoits couldn't find the range throughout the first quarter, scoring only 11 points to Warren's 15. A tight defense held the Blue Devils to 12 counters in the second quarter as the Sequoits pulled into the lead at halftime 28 to 27.

The Sequoits found the range in the third quarter as Kubicki hit for six quick points early in the stanza and the Antioch quintet pulled out in front.

Three bad passes late in the quarter gave Warren six easy points and the quarter ended with the score knotted at 49 all.

A quick pass to Walkington on the jump ball to open the final stanza gave him an easy lay up and the Blue Devils pulled out in front 51 to 49. Denny Pogose, in his last appearance in a Sequoit uniform, came off with 3 timely rebounds and put Antioch back in front 53 to 51 on his two pointer and a 20' jump shot by Pleviak.

Bob Krieger then pumped in two straight baskets to give the Sequoits a 6 point lead. It was Antioch all the way from then on. Warren pulled to within 3 points with a little over three minutes left but Antioch came back with six straight to all but put the game on ice.

Joe Pleviak, in the process of playing a tremendous defensive game, dumped in 20 points to top the game's ledger. Pleviak held Warren's scoring ace, B. Walkington, to 3 baskets during the second half. With a little less than 2 minutes left, Pleviak went in for a lay up shot and was thrown off balance by two Warren defenders. In coming down he struck his head on the hard floor, splitting it open and requiring eleven stitches to repair the damage. Joe was helped from the court amid a din of applause and a cheer led by the Warren cagers' cheering squad, as the fans on both sides of the court registered their approval of his performance.

Kubicki and Kreiger also hit for double figures with 12 and 11 points respectively. Gram led the scoring for Warren with 17 points. He was followed by Walkington with 14. Gram scored 9 out of the 11 points Warren received from the charity line.

The Sequoits controlled the boards throughout the game, grabbing off 39 rebounds to Warren's 27. Lang and Kreiger shared honors with 10 rebounds each. Kreiger topped the ledger for the Blue Devils with 12.

The Sequoits showed improvement over previous games in number of field goals attempted, hitting on 25 of 65 attempts for a 385 percentage. Warren made 25 of 79 attempts for 304. The Antioch cagers continued their accuracy from the free throw line, dumping 16 out of 23 for a .696 percentage clip.

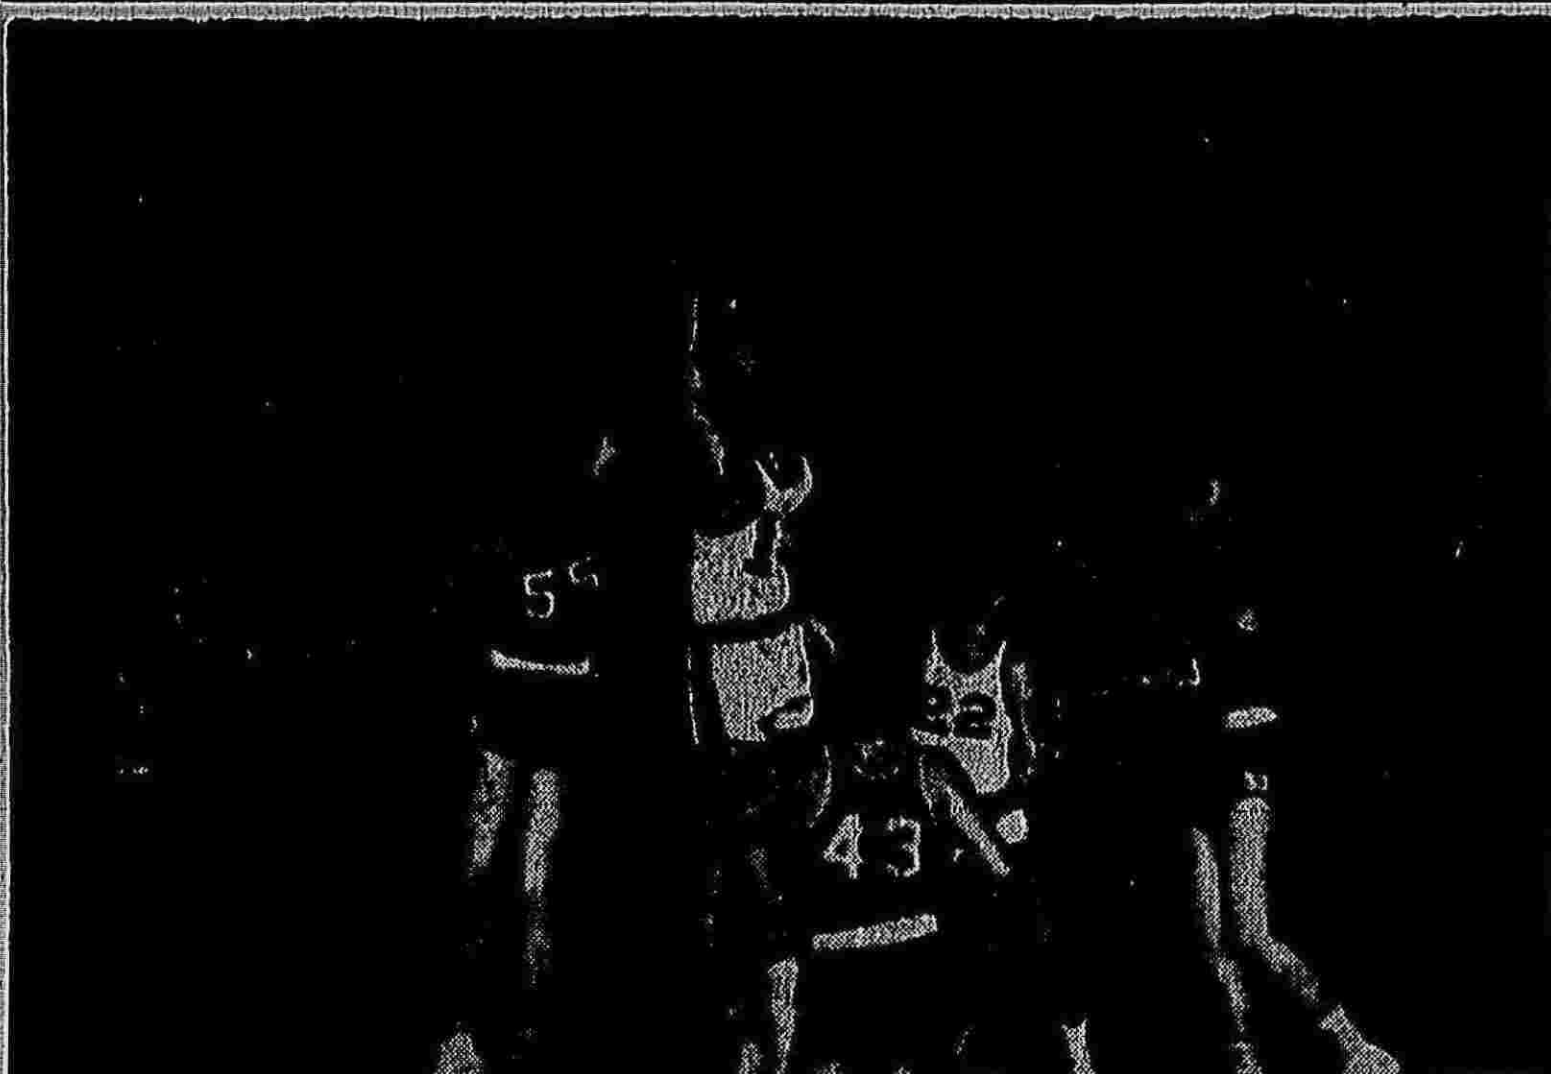

Antioch moves to Grayslake Friday for a crucial contest with the Grayslake Rams. Last weekend's action left Warren, Antioch and Lake Forest all tied for second place behind conference leading Round Lake. All three have identical records of 4 wins and 2 losses.

Wrestling Life at A. T. H. S.

By Ralph Gaston

The wrestling life of the Antioch Fighting Sequoits started and ended with a bang last Friday here with Warren. The varsity squad started their first meet of the season, defeating the Warren squad 27 to 19. The winning Sequoits were R. Sheppard, B. Brenna, G. Blumenschein, J. Gates, R. Fitch, R. Fowles, and B. Slater.

Tuesday the varsity takes on the conference champs of Wauconda.

Our frosh-soph has a three meet winning streak. Last Friday night they defeated the Warren frosh-sophs 27 to 9. The winning members of our team last Friday, Jan. 19, were P. Mongan, D. Miller, N. Birr, R. Miller, R. Gaston, T. Urban, J. Sebesta, and Lonn Ipsen.

Lonn Ipsen and R. Gaston have each won ten matches. Lonn has three pins and seven decisions.

Friday night, January 26, is Dad's Night at the Antioch High School gym. At that time the Sequoits will take on Grayslake. So come on out and cheer your boys on for a victory.

Bigfoot Loses To Salem High

The Salem Falcons stretched their season's undefeated string another notch Tuesday night by defeating a strong Bigfoot 61 to 54 in a non-conference tilt at Bigfoot.

Behind scoring ace Danny Yates, the Falcons jumped to a 21 to 11 lead. Yates, dumping in 26 points took game scoring honors. Bigfoot settled down during the second quarter and whittled the Falcon lead to 6 points with the score standing at 32 to 26 at the half way mark.

Starting the third quarter, the Falcons again found their shooting eye, outscoring their opponents 17 to 7 for the period.

The Bigfoot squad capitalized on four missed scoring attempts by Salem in the fourth quarter and again started to whittle down the Falcon lead.

At this point, with approximately six minutes left in the stanza, Salem went into a stall and controlled the ball till the gun sounded.

Zeihen followed Yates for scoring counters and Lehman was high for Bigfoot with 20 points.

Salem plays Clinton at Salem Friday, as they return to conference play. The fans will be entertained at halftime by a program prepared by the Salem Girls Physical Education department.

Falcons Crush Palmyra 73 - 43

Salem High School retained its lead in the Southeast Conference Friday night by easily rolling over Palmyra 73 to 43 in a contest played at Palmyra.

The Falcons moved to a quick 24 to 12 first quarter lead and retained strict command throughout the game. Holding their opponents to a slim 5 points in the second stanza, the Falcons stretched their lead to a 42 to 17 tally at halftime.

Palmyra put on a brief scoring rally in the third quarter but Salem came back with a 9 point edge in the final quarter to take the win 73 to 43.

Yates took scoring honors for Salem dumping in 30 counters on 13 from the field and 4 free throws. Zeihen, the only other Falcon in double figures, followed with 13 points. Hill was high point man for Palmyra with 12 points.

Salem plays Clinton at home Friday for their next conference outing while their nearest rival, Union Grove, plays a crucial game at Watertown. Other games in the conference includes Norris at Williams Bay, and Palmyra at St. Mary's of Burlington.

Wrestler Suffers Dislocated Elbow

The Antioch Wrestling team apparently do not know their own strength since during their last match with Warren an opposing wrestler had to be carted away by the Rescue Squad.

Jerry Lewis, of the Warren wrestling team, had his left elbow dislocated while wrestling Friday night, Jan. 19.

Lake Forest Scouts Edge Grayslake Rams 58 to 56

Lake Forest tightened up the Northwest Suburban conference Friday night by edging the Grayslake Rams 58 to 56 in a contest played at Lake Forest.

The victory moved the Scouts into a three way tie for second with Antioch and Warren sharing the honors. All three trail unbeaten Round Lake by two games.

The Rams led at the halfway mark 29 to 28 but Lake Forest took command in the third period and entered the final stanza with a 45 to 42 advantage.

With approximately three minutes left the Lake Forest quintet led by a score of 55 to 46 and went into a stall. Grayslake managed to close the gap to 58 to 56 tally before the final gun sounded.

Hawkins again led in the game scoring column, dumping in 27 points for the luckless Rams.

Pogose Leaves Sequoit Squad

Denny Pogose, who turned in such a fine performance in last week's Warren-Antioch scramble, will play no more on the Sequoit squad. Being a mid-semester graduate, Pogose is now ineligible for the team.

Coming to Antioch, Pogose joined the squad in 1959 and although handicapped by ankle trouble and plagued by a sparse knowledge of the game itself, he was voted the best improved player along with Bill Ozga for last year.

Pogose, who stands 6' 6", was considered by Coach Larry Leon a team-spirited player and had been developing into a solid team asset.

Not yet wishing to enter college, Pogose will take additional courses for the remainder of the year in preparation for higher education.

Round Lake Takes Bulldogs 73 to 58

Round Lake continued to dominate the Northwest Suburban Conference Friday night by trouncing Grant's Bulldogs 73 to 58.

Missing 14 of 32 free throws the Panthers dumped 28 from the field to register their sixth straight conference triumph. It was a rough and tumble affair that had almost everything, including a technical against Grant for having 6 men on the court.

The Bulldogs cut the margin to 59 to 52 with 4:26 minutes left but two free throws and a layup put the Panthers out of danger and they went on to a 15 point victory margin.
